

How dare you use your jobs to censor my television and radio without my permission! The airwaves belong to us, the people, not the government! I am offended by the sale of our government to large corporations that pollute our water, soil and air; not by a woman's breast, not by Howard Stern's mouth, and not by gays on tv. Keep your hands off my ears!